Doctrinal Statement

We believe in the Bible as the inerrant Word of God, verbally inspired, the all-sufficient rule of faith and practice.

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the virgin birth, the sinless perfection, the bodily resurrection and ascension into heaven of Jesus Christ, and in His present life there for us as High Priest and Advocate.

We believe man was created in the image of God, that he disobeyed God, and thereby incurred spiritual death, which is separation from God, and also physical death as a consequence; and that all the Adamic race are born in sin and are sinners by nature and practice.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins as a vicarious substitutionary sacrifice, and that all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood.

We believe in the personal, premillennial, and imminent return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ are born of the Holy Spirit, and thereby become children of God.

We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

We believe the Church is an elect company of believers baptized by the Holy Spirit into one body; its mission is to witness concerning its Head, Jesus Christ, preaching the Gospel among all nations; it will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air ere He appears to set up His Kingdom.

We believe the grace of God to be sufficient for the maintenance of a Godly walk, and that Christ and not the law is the believer's rule of life.

Dedication

Miss Lena Lobaugh

"... even as Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself for it."—Eph. 5:28.

No passage from the Word could more adequately express the devotion of Miss Lobaugh to the ministry of the Word at the Washington Bible College. The College would not have continued to exist if it had not been for those who loved it and gave themselves for it. From the early days of the school, she has been intimately associated with its ministry. Before it became firmly established—when it was small, unknown, unorganized and unrecognized—she saw in it the hand of the Lord and continued to love it. Through the years her love for the school has grown, resulting in an ever-increasing sacrifice in its behalf.

During the past few years the Lord has permitted her to serve as the manager of the Book Room with its ministry of the written page. She has captured the affection, not only of the faculty and students but of a host of friends through the Washington area. Her deep interest in the spiritual welfare of others, her devotion to the cause of training young people for Christian service and her personal love for Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ have been a rich blessing. She has won our love and deepest respect and confidence. To her we affectionately dedicate the 1957 MILESTONE.

President's Message

Earthly monuments, reared to the glory of men, soon crumble into dust and pass unnoticed by future generations. The glory of a new generation soon overshadows the old-nothing permanent remains.

Paul spoke of the Philippians as his "joy and crown". His monument built by a life of sacrifice and suffering was a living thing that would continue to grow and prosper throughout the ages of eternity. The risen living Lord was the foundation. Each stone in the monument was living. Time could not alter its composition nor destroy its existence.

There must have been an ever-increasing satisfaction in the heart of Paul as he neared the end of his earthly pilgrimage in realizing that what he was doing on this earth would remain for eternity. It has often been stated that whatever we do should be done with eternity in view.

Those who leave the classrooms of Washington Bible College must learn this lesson and learn it well. The temptation is always present to sell eternal things for some temporary gain; to have my way today while planning to let God have His way tomorrow. Let us learn that TODAY is opportunity; tomorrow is ETERNITY.

The faculty, trustees, contributors, prayer stewards and your host of friends in Christ are expecting you to be their "joy and crown". The investment has been great. They feel they have a right to expect you to use your life, in which they have made an investment, for the glory of God. Their investment has been for ETERNITY.

It is our prayer that you will not fail Him. His marching orders are definite. The path of success is clearly marked. The warnings of failure to those who disobey are blazoned in red across the pages of scripture and history.

"If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory." Col. 3:1-4.

Foreign Missions fellowship

News from Mission Stations around the world is brought to the ears and hearts of the faculty and student body regularly by the FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP. Whether your interest is in Jungle or Plain, Mountain, or Valley, Swamp or Desert or City or Country, the F.M.F. brings speakers to meet that interest. The morning chapel hour every Thursday is given to the F.M.F. for the purpose of hearing from these missionaries.

The interest in the Lord's service in other climes, cultures and continents that is sparked weekly during the school year is brought to a climax at the yearly two-day conference held in March. Representatives of all the major continents of the World are at hand to tell not only of the Lord's working in their fields, but also to remind and persuade us of our responsibility to the many people of those fields.

Will you pray with us about our responsibility to the Lord Jesus and the many millions who have not yet heard of Him? We would "Preach the gospel not where Christ was named."—Rom. 15:20.

Youth Conference

Enthusiasm ran high as young people of high school and college age arrived at the Eighth Annual Youth Conference held February 1 and 2, 1957. The theme of the Conference was, "My Life and the Word of God." The speaker, Rev. George Lynch from Baltimore, Maryland, endeared himself immediately to the heart of each young person who attended. In addition to the messages by Rev. Lynch, a music program was presented by the College faculty, sessions were held in the classrooms, and a tour of the building was made.

CHI ALPHA OMEGA HONOR SOCIETY

D. Hamburg, H. Heater, S. Fowler,
S. Andrews, H. Hilton.

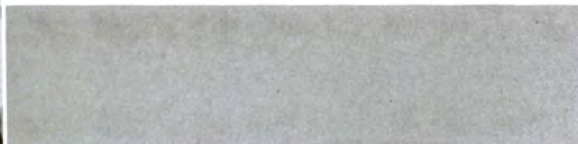

Scholastic achievement and Christian character are the basis for membership in the Chi Alpha Omega Honor Society. Progressive series of honor pins and an honor key is awarded to those who continually maintain a high record of scholarship. The society motto, II Timothy 2:15, presents the standard of scholarship desired by each member—"approved unto God."

It is the purpose of the Student Council to govern the social and recreational activities of the school, and insure that the student body will work in harmony with the faculty as we each seek to do God's will.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION AND A PRAYER

As the editor of the 1957 Milestone, I want to express my sincere appreciation for the splendid co-operation of all those who so faithfully assisted in gathering and arranging the yearbook material. To those who volunteered to type, handle correspondence, photograph, and do other necessary tasks essential for the publication of this book, I am deeply indebted.

Then as a group, the Milestone staff's prayer is that the Yearbook might be an instrument used by the Holy Spirit to encourage Christian young people to study the Word of God that they might be "workmen that needeth not to be ashamed" (II Tim. 2:15) as they serve the Lord Jesus Christ.

☆ Inaugural Souvenir ☆

"—We are called as a people to give testimony in the light of the world to our faith that the future shall belong to the free. —In our quest of understanding, we beseech God's guidance.—This faith—decrees that we, the people, elect leaders not to rule but to serve—expresses a purpose of strengthening our dedication and devotion to the precepts of our founding documents, a conscious renewal of faith in our country and in the watchfulness of a Divine Providence.—Whatever America hopes to bring to pass in the world must first come to pass in the heart of America."

From the President's first inaugural address.

110,000 tracts distributed in the streets of Washington, D.C.
during the Inaugural Parade.

Today will live in history. As the world watches, our President and Vice President are being inaugurated. Everyone of us who by our presence participate in this event feel that we are a part of history.

And yet—though this day may be recorded in the history books, and though the names of Eisenhower and Nixon have become a part of the story of the United States, this day and these names, and certainly the names of us who witness these events, will soon have vanished from the memory of future generations. The dust of history will cover all.

But—there is a name which has weathered the storms of time, and today, after unnumbered generations have come and gone, remains the focus of millions of lives. That name is—Jesus Christ. History is His story!

Day of Prayer

On the mornings each of October 24 and March 13 all classes and other activities were set aside, and the faculty, staff and students spent the entire class time in prayer. The sessions opened at 8:00 a.m. with a time of praise, devotions, and united prayer in the auditorium. Following this, the students divided into their respective work groups to meet with each supervisor, next each separate class led by its respective officer met together, and finally each student prayed in solitude. With hearts full of thanksgiving, all gathered in the auditorium to conclude the morning with a time of praise for His marvelous Grace.

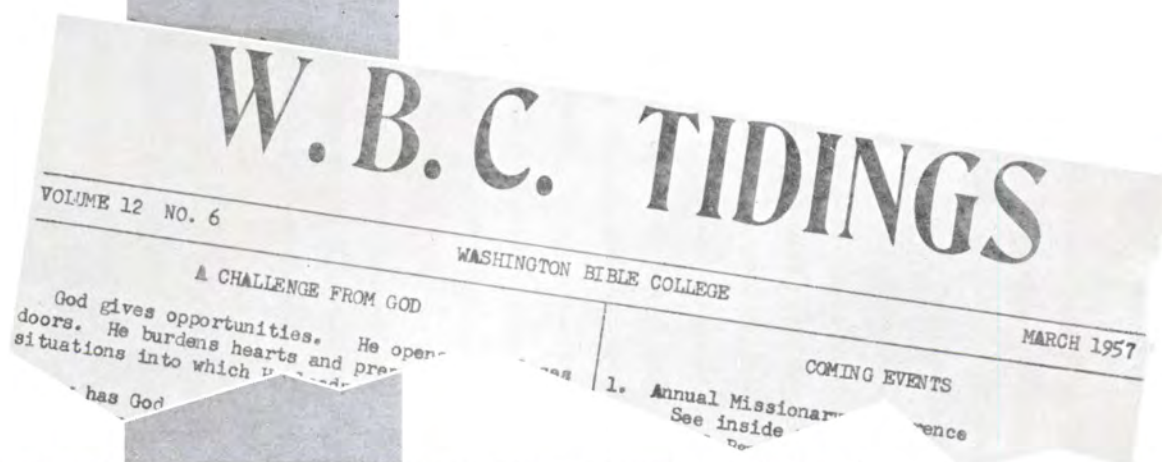

REV. ED STELLING
Prayer Steward Chairman

PRAYER—The sole purpose of this department is to pray. Though our vision is world-wide, for the whole Body of Christ, yet it is chiefly for the Washington Bible College.

STEWARD—We encourage systematic prayer for the College. Those who become members of this department receive a monthly prayer letter. This contains a Biblical exposition on prayer challenging their stewardship of prayer time, a list of answers for praise, and new requests for prayer.

DEPARTMENT—Our Secretary, a pastor in a southern city, writes the prayer message each month. He is ably assisted at the College by Mrs. George Miles, who prepares the prayer requests, and others in the office who type, prepare, and mail out the letters.

We believe that the Prayer Steward Department is vital to the spiritual life and progress of the College.

The Tidings has become the Lord's tool to consolidate the interest of students and friends in the ministry of the Word at W.B.C. It reaches nearly five-thousand, who by some personal contact have developed an interest in the teaching ministry. It is a family letter, a call to prayer, a challenge to study the Word and a reminder of God's blessing.

ALUMNI OFFICERS

A L U M N I

The test of the influence of Washington Bible College is the harvest it reaps in the lives of those who pass through its doors of graduation into the world of God's service. We can well be proud of the witness our alumni are making in this country and abroad—holding forth Christ in many fields of service.

To coordinate the testimony of these servants and to provide a liaison between them and the school which thrust them forth is the job of our Alumni Association. This organization is composed of those who have graduated from the college over the years and among its many interests is keeping in touch with those who are scattered in many places, proclaiming the message of the Gospel in various capacities.

Through the years both the Day School and the Evening School have produced many fine Christian servants who are now giving of themselves in service. Of the approximately 180 members of the Association, more than one-fourth are engaged in full-time Christian service; many more are leaders in their churches, teachers, workers in Missions and Bible schools and active in various other ways.

At the present time, two of the alumni—Doris Jackling in Brazil and Elsie Yoshimura in Hawaii—are Missionaries overseas. Two others, Charlotte Fleming and Carl Powell—are Missionary candidates. One, Arlie Adkins, is President of Southern Methodist College. Several are engaged in Christian Secretarial work at Bible colleges.

Numbered among the Alumni are at least fifteen active Pastors of churches, several Directors of Christian Education and several full time Bible Teachers. Among the more concentrated groups of Alumni is the gathering in Kentucky at the Scripture Memory Mountain Mission where Donald Apperson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cline, and Nancy Ann Johnson are all engaged in similar work.

Irene and Don Spurrier are actively engaged in Youth Work at Harmony Heart Camp in Pennsylvania where he is Assistant to the Director of the camp. Mary Catherine Bates continues to add to an inspiring record of service at Berean Mission in New Mexico.

These are but a few of the examples of the kinds of work into which our graduates have gone. Others are doing equally important jobs closer home. And, of course, added to these who are full time in the Lord's work are those who daily devote themselves to the proper apportioning of their time in dedication to the cause of Christ.

We salute our alumni, wherever they may be. Wherever they go they are a witness for the Lord and for the school. Their actions will in large measure determine the impressions others will get of WBC.

AUXILIARY

In the spring of 1955 fourteen women closely associated with Washington Bible College met to discuss the possibilities and purposes of an Auxiliary and crystalized the following goals: to pray for the school; to promote interest in the school and to provide those needs not supplied by other departments.

Interest in the Auxiliary was soon apparent as it began to undertake various projects in the kitchen and household areas. Such items as a new commercial refrigerator and mixer, silverware, dining room fans, vacuum cleaner and lounge furnishings have been purchased. Dormitory rooms have been redecorated and help donated at banquets and other events. Emphasis has been placed on a visitation program.

Though loosely-organized, meeting four times a year—the Auxiliary has become a vital part of W. B. C.
